

YESTERDAY ONCE MORE

When I was _____
I'd listened to the radio
Waiting for my favorite songs
When they played I'd _____ along
It made me _____

Those were such happy times
And not so _____ ago
How I wondered where they'd gone
But they're back _____
Just like a long lost _____
All the songs I loved so well

(*) Every Sha-la-la-la
Every Wo-wo-wo
Still shines
Every shing-a-ling-a-ling
That they're starting to sing
So _____

When they get to the part
Where he's breakin' her heart
It can really make me _____
Just like before
It's _____ once more

Looking back on how it was
In years gone by
And the _____ times that I had
Makes today seem rather sad
So _____ has changed

It was songs of _____ that
I would sing back then
And I'd memorize each word
Those _____ melodies
Still sound so good to me
As _____ melt the years away
