Hot dogs are very popular in the United States. Americans eat them at baseball and football games. They eat them at picnics too. They call them “hot dogs” or “frankfurters”. Do Americans eat dog meat? Of course not. Hot dogs are like hamburgers. People make hamburgers from beef, but they make most hot dogs from pork. Pork comes from pigs. People often put the hot dog on a roll so they can eat it with their hands.

Many people like hot dogs. Now you can buy them all over the United States and in many other countries.
