Final Exam	Academic year: 2021	Semester: 2
Subject: Basic English	Subject code:	Class: M6/1
Number of questions: 6	Points:20

Name:_____ Nickname: _____ Number: _____ Class: _6_/_1

Answer all questions:

Question 1: ----Verb + prepositions

Complete the sentences with a verb in its correct form and a preposition from the box.

into; of; at; for; from; to; on

- You are a good friend. I know that I can always depend on you.

1. I didn't inherit a penny _____ my Uncle when he died.
2. I was accused by my employers _____ stealing, which I strongly denied.
3. How can I ever forgive him _____ telling me all those lies?
4. He loves football and he is very good _____ it too.
5. We've invited 300 guests _____ our wedding.

Question 2: - Modals Verbs

Circle the correct answer.

- You must / don't have to get your hair cut. The school says long hair is not allowed.

1. You don't have to / mustn't have long hair in A.C.U. if you are a girl.
2. I might / must go to Sunee tomorrow but I am not sure..
3. I can't / may not come to your party. I have to ask my mother first.
4. Bam is such a bad girl. She can't / won't do what she is told.
5. You mustn't / won't talk in class. The teacher doesn't like it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Name: _____ Nickname: _____ Number: _____ Class: __/__

Question 3: Physical appearance or personality

Select the correct adjective from the box to complete the sentence.

skinny; curly; quick-thinking; cheeky; wrinkled; moody; graceful; nosy; tanned

- He has lost a lot of weight recently. He looks very skinny.

1. My grandfather looks very old. His eyesight is very bad and his skin is very _____.
2. When my young English friend came back from his sun holiday in Thailand his skin was very _____.
3. Sometimes my friend is happy and then suddenly she will start to cry. She is very _____.
4. My neighbor wants to know everything that is happening in our family. He is so _____.
5. My little brother is always putting spiders in my shoes! He is so _____.

Question 4: Body Idioms

Complete the sentences with one of these expressions

Putting on a brave face; on its last legs; a sharp tongue; goes to their head; pulling my leg; finding my feet;

- My car has done over 200,000 kilometres. It is on its last legs now.

1. Young football players make so much money now. This success _____. They believe they are really special.
2. My sister can say some very cruel things to hurt people. She has _____.
3. She failed all her exams. She says she is OK but I know she is just _____.
4. My friends keep telling me Justin Bieber is coming to the school tomorrow but I know that they are just _____.
5. When I first arrived in New York I didn't like it but now I am slowly _____ and I am starting to like it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Name: _____ Nickname: _____ Number: _____ Class: __/__

Question 5: Past Probability

Write sentences for the situations below, using the information in the box.

He She They It	Must have Can't have Might have	been hit his head been bought had cut	it at the d-tac shop. A party. painting. on the door. her. his hair

- Tom has a new phone. He had it in a d-tac bag.
  He must have bought it at the d-tac shop

1. The boy was crying. I don't know why
   _____.
2. The man has paint on his shirt and face.
   _____.
3. Tom's room is so untidy. There are coke cans and pizza boxes on the floor and I heard loud music and people singing all night.
   _____.
4. It wasn't Miss B who knocked on the door yesterday. I am sure.
   _____.
5. Tom said my friend cut his hair short but I saw my friend today with long hair.
   _____.

Question 6: - Present to past

Rewrite the sentences to make them refer to the past.

- I must read the book again before the test.
  I had to read the book again before the test.

1. I have to go swimming three days a week.
   _____.
2. They must be at the cinema.
   _____.
3. We can't eat in class.
   _____.
4. He can't be a pop star.
   _____.
5. He won't do his homework.
   _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS