

Smart Home Technology

You are going to hear part of a radio programme on smart homes. As you listen, complete the statements below with a maximum of three words.

|                                                                                          |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. The speaker mentions smart mirrors, robot vacuum cleaners and also                    |
| 2. In the 2014 Tech Show there was a vast range of gadgets that were integrated with the |
| 3. The Panasonic mirror evaluates your                                                   |
| 4. The connectivity allowing you to interact with your home is becoming                  |
| 5. An LG system will play music at home depending on                                     |
| 6. Five years later, the presenter thinks that there are still not many available.       |