.pdf Открыть с помощью...

Grammar revision

Conditionals / 8 points

1 Put the verbs in the correct form. Which type of conditional is each sentence?

1 If I were you, I _____ (not eat) that!
2 I would've prepared something special for dinner, if I _____ (know) you were coming.
3 If she had told me your number, I _____ (call) you last night.
4 If you multiply two by five, the answer _____ (be) ten.
5 _____ you _____ (give) Matt this message if you see him tomorrow?
6 I would have had a good time if I _____ (go) out last night.
7 If you find it, _____ you _____ (tell) me?
8 I _____ (get) some food if I had any money.

unless, as long as, provided/providing (that), in case / 6 points

2 Rewrite the sentences using the words given.

1 They'll let you in, but only if you have your ID card. PROVIDING THAT
They _____.
2 Take your mobile phone because you may need to call me. IN CASE
Take _____.
3 We will win the match if we do our best. PROVIDED
We _____.
4 They wouldn't need Danny in the team except if someone was ill. UNLESS
They _____.
5 We'll be able to make sandwiches if Kate remembers to bring the bread. AS LONG AS
We _____.
6 You won't finish in time if you don't hurry. UNLESS You _____.

I wish/If only / 6 points

3 Make sentences with I wish or If only for these situations.

1 You aren't fit but you would like to be.
I wish _____.
2 Your sister always takes a long time in the bathroom.
I wish my sister _____.
3 You didn't buy tickets for a concert yesterday and now they're sold out.
If only _____.
4 Your parents don't let you have parties at home and you're not happy about it.
If only my parents _____.
5 You ate a big lunch and now you regret it.
I wish _____.
6 You're allergic to cats but you really like them.
I wish _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS