

On a appris que pour parler de ce qui caractérise le sujet, on conjugue le verbe au présent simple.

Toutes ces questions interrogent sur des sports ou des sportifs en général. Tu sais qu'en anglais, tu dois signifier à ton interlocuteur que tu lui poses une question ET lui préciser à quel temps est ta question. C'est le rôle de l'auxiliaire.

Trouve l'auxiliaire manquant .N'oublie pas que « BE » est à la fois verbe et auxiliaire.

1. Lacrosse a team sport ?
2. you often score goals ?
3.this sport popular in the US ?
4.the players catch and throw the ball with a stick ?
5.the players need a racket ?
6.there 11 players in a team ?
7. this sport require physical strength ?
8.the players hit a ball?
9.it a violent sport ?
- 10.....a player need a special outfit ?
- 11.....you in water when you practise this sport ?
- 12.....your best friend practise this sport ?
- 13.....you interested in this sport?
- 14.....a player need to run fast to play this sport?
- 15.....Kate's boyfriend good at this sport?
- 16.. Mr and Mr Lake's son do judo?
- 17.....Peter's father play golf?
- 18.....Nancy football team often win?
- 19.....your coach a great fan of Manchester United?
- 20.....kayaking tiring? Tiring=fatigant
- 21.....the volleyball women world champions French or Polish?
- 22.. soccer and American football very different?
- 23.....THERE substitutes in this sport ?
24. a substitute take his place when a player leaves the field?
- 25.....your English teacher know the cricket rules ?