I'm an adventurous _____. I love extreme sports and feeling adrenaline all over my body. I consider myself very active as I am usually looking for something new to do or learn. I have already done so many incredible things; let me share with _____ :

I have taken skydiving lessons for many years. I usually go skydiving once a month. It's the _____ exciting experience ever. It was scary the first time but then it became one of the best experiences ever.

I would also love to learn ice skating but I haven't had the chance yet. There's no ice rink where I live and I don't know if I could afford traveling to practice to another city... Maybe next _____ when I visit my family in Canada.

I am also into Science. I've been interested in it since I was a little _____ at school. Robotics is an amazing field. I have taken robotics courses for more than four years. Now, I'm _____ to build a small scanner.

Another great interest I have is music. I'm not a _____ but I enjoy creating music beats online using a set of platforms. I have already created ten lists of beats for my friends to use them to sing or rap along. It's like writing music and you can get more and more creative...

Well, that's all about myself...
