1.- Read and do the activities.

This is the Story of St Patrick for kids. Patrick was born in Great Britain in AD 387. When he was sixteen, he was captured by pirates and taken to Ireland. He was then sold to a tribal Chieftain called Mil Chu. "Chief, Please let me go back to my parents. The pirates took me away from my home," Patrick said. "What? I just bought you a slave. Go there and look after the sheep!" ordered Mil Chu. "Master, Please be kind," Patrick requested but he didn't listen and Patrick had to work really hard for six years as a slave to his master. Saint Patrick's Day

People celebrate Saint Patrick's Day in different countries, but it is a national holiday in Ireland. Saint Patrick was a famous missionary from Ireland. People celebrate Saint Patrick's Day every year on March 17. The tradition says that you have to wear green clothes because green represents good luck and hope. On Saint Patrick's Day, people also remember the legend of a fairy called a leprechaun. He's a little man dressed as a shoemaker. People believe that if you find one of these men, you can ask for three wishes. Another good luck symbol in this celebration is the four-leaf clover.
