DAY 06

Question–Response – Who Questions

Part 2 has 25 recordings. Each recording consists of a question/statement and 3 responses. You are to choose the best response to the question/statement.

As finding correct answers in Part 2 is entirely based on listening, it is essential to listen for the question word at the beginning of each question. Normally, the correct answer is the response with information that corresponds to the question word. Various question types often asked in Part 2 will be discussed from Day 6 to Day 13.

Who questions ask about people, their positions, or groups of people. Typical responses to this question type are about names of people. They may also contain personal pronouns such as I/he/she or they may even be undetermined answers like It has not been decided or Let me check.

As who can be used instead of whom in a question, it is important to determine if the question word refers to the subject or an object in the question.

Q Who is going to attend the financial meeting? (who is the subject)
Question word + verb
A Mr. Porter said he would be available.

Q Who should I talk to? (who is the object)
Question word + auxiliary verb + subject + verb + preposition
A Yujin in accounting.
