

The Wax Man

Author: Olga Loya

1. The fox asked the wax man to
  - A. go away.
  - B. move out of the way.
  - C. play with her.
  - D. give her a chicken.
2. Each time the fox talked to him, the wax man
  - A. bowed.
  - B. smiled.
  - C. cried.
  - D. sang.
3. For helping her, the fox offered to
  - A. pay the coyote.
  - B. be a friend to the coyote.
  - C. give the coyote a chicken.
  - D. make the coyote a king.
4. This book was written by
  - A. Irina Hale.
  - B. Olga Loya.
  - C. Arthur Dorros.
  - D. Nola Buck.
5. When it started raining, the coyote
  - A. ran away.
  - B. took out an umbrella.
  - C. howled and cried.
  - D. ran to the chicken house.
6. What happened to the fox's hands?
  - A. They stuck to the wax man.
  - B. They were caught in the fence.
  - C. The chickens pecked at them.
  - D. They slipped off the wax.
7. The fox said she would _____ the wax man.
  - A. marry
  - B. pay
  - C. hit
  - D. kiss
8. When she was loose, the fox
  - A. fell on the ground.
  - B. ran over the hill.
  - C. climbed the fence.
  - D. thanked the coyote.
9. The coyote asked the fox
  - A. where she was going.
  - B. to show him the way home.
  - C. what had happened to her.
  - D. if she wanted to go to the park.
10. The fox slipped through the fence each night because
  - A. she wanted to meet the other fox.
  - B. she was afraid of the dark.
  - C. she wanted to eat the chickens.
  - D. she wanted to go to the lake.

11. The fox and the coyote decided
- A. never to steal a chicken again.
  - B. to stay away from wax men.
  - C. to treat one another kindly.
  - D. stay at home when it rained.
12. The farmer made the wax man because
- A. he wanted to scare something.
  - B. he had entered an art contest.
  - C. it was his hobby.
  - D. it was almost Halloween.
13. The coyote melted the wax man with
- A. a match.
  - B. his tears.
  - C. a coat.
  - D. his breath.
14. When the fox found the wax man,
- A. she gave it a name.
  - B. she was afraid.
  - C. she took it home.
  - D. she knocked it over.
15. The fox was angry with the wax man because
- A. the wax man was melting in the sun.
  - B. the wax man told the cat her secret.
  - C. the wax man did not move.
  - D. the wax man did not answer her question.
-