

London Air Pollution

Use some of the words in the word box below to complete sentences 2-7.

The first sentence has been done for you. Be careful, as there are more words than you need!

blanket	blanketed	choking	choke	campaigned	diesel
emissions	emits	environment	environmental	microscope	microscopic nitrogen	particles	pollution	polluted	respiratory	respiration
shunning	shun	ruled	smog	sue	toxic

1) The Great Smog blanketed London with a cloud of toxic pollution for several days in 1952.

2) London's famous red buses are the biggest source of dioxide in England's capital city today.

3) particles can lodge in people's systems and cause serious damage to health.

4) While the government ignores the issue of air, Londoners are on toxic fumes.

5) groups plan to the UK government for failing to tackle the problem.

6) The supreme court has that the government is not doing enough to reduce emissions.

7) Campaigners argue that cars in favour of bikes would help to lessen toxic .

