

Saint Valentine's Day-Animated History

Watch the animated history on Saint Valentine's Day and answer the questions below.

- 1,000 years ago the most powerful army in the world belonged to the Romans.
a) True                      b) False
- Many of the soldiers felt homesick.
a) True                      b) False
- The emperor's name was Claudius I.
a) True                      b) False
- The Roman emperor was an ambitious ruler.
a) True                      b) False
- The Roman emperor allowed their soldiers to get married.
a) True                      b) False
- By that time many of the Romans were Christians.
a) True                      b) False
- A bishop called Valentine let soldiers get married in his church.
a) True                      b) False
- The soldiers' weddings were meant to be kept secret.
a) True                      b) False
- The emperor asked the bishop to stop praying to the Gods of Rome in his church.
a) True                      b) False
- The bishop was arrested and sentenced to death.
a) True                      b) False
- While Valentine was in prison, the jailer's sister used to bring him food.
a) True                      b) False
- The young woman who used to visit Valentine in prison was deaf and blind.
a) True                      b) False
- Valentine and that woman fell in love.
a) True                      b) False
- Valentine touched the woman's eyelids and her sight was miraculously restored.
a) True                      b) False
- Valentine's execution was set for 14th February.
a) True                      b) False
- Before Valentine's execution, the woman wrote him a love letter.
a) True                      b) False