CORNERSTONE

Arctic

Monkeys

BEFORE LISTENING
- What is the "Cornerstone"?
  A. A Cinema.
  B. A Bar
  C. A Park.
- What do you think this song is about?

WHILE LISTENING

- Complete with the missing words.

I thought I saw you in the Battleship
But it was only a look alike
She was nothing but a vision _____
Under the warning _____
She was close
Close enough to be your _____
But my chances turned to _____
When I asked her if I could call her your _____

- Correct the words.

I thought I saw you in the Parrot's cheek_____
Messin' with the smoke alarm
It was too loud for me to hear her leak_____
And she had a broken arm
It was close
So close that the walls were get_____
And she wrote it out in Letraset
"No, you can't call me her name"

- Order the sentences.

___ I wandered up for a closer look
___ And she held me very tightly
___ I thought I saw you in the Rusty Hook
___ 'Til I asked awfully politely
___ Huddled up in wicker chair
___ And kissed whoever was sitting there
___ "Please, can I call you her name?"

- Complete with the missing words.

Tell me, where's your hiding _____?
I'm worried I'll forget your _____
And I've asked _____
I'm beginning to think I imagined you all _____
I elongated my lift home
Yeah, I let him go the long way 'round
I smelt your scent on the seatbelt
And kept my shortcuts to myself

- Answer:
  Where is he? Who is him?

And I elongated my lift home
Yeah, I let him go the long way 'round
I smelt your scent on the seatbelt
And kept my shortcuts to myself

- Order the sentences.

___ On the phone to the middle man
___ That she was close
___ I saw your sister in the Cornerstone
___ I thought she might understand
___ When I saw that she was on her own

Well, you couldn't get much closer
She said, "I'm really not supposed to, but yes
You can call me anything you want"

AFTER READING
- What type of song do you think it is? Who is this song for?
- Did you imagine the end of the song? What do you think of it?
- Have you ever done something like that? What about someone you know? What happened?
- Did you like the song? the story?
- What would you do if you were the "sister"? How would you react?