

Use a participle clause to reduce relative clauses.

1. They called a lawyer who lived nearby.

⇒ .

2. We broke the computer that belongs to my father.

⇒ .

3. The man who is wearing a blue jumper is in the garden.

⇒ .

4. We found a doctor who works at a hospital in Hanoi City.

⇒ .

5. People who have arrived late will not be allowed to enter.

⇒ .

6. Don't wake the baby who is sleeping in the next room.

⇒ .

7. Who is that boy who is walking in the forest?

⇒ .

8. The man who wants coffee is over there.

⇒ .

9. The television which was bought 20 years ago was stolen.

⇒ .

10. I often buy cheese which is imported from Paris.

⇒ .