

Adjectives

Comparative of superiority

One or two syllables (add -ER)

low

lower

One syllable

ending in -e (add -R)

nice

nicer

One syllable

ending in consonant-vowel-consonant

(double the consonant; add -ER)

fat

fatter

Two syllables

ending in -y

(drop the -y and add -IER)

happy

happier

More than two syllables (MORE + ADJ)

comfortable

more comfortable

Irregular forms

good

better

bad

worse

far

further

Write the comparative of superiority:

	Comparative	Translation
thin
short
interesting
friendly
fat
interesting
beautiful
bad
expensive
good
clever
careful
lazy
rough
far

A - Complete according to the example:

Lisbon is big but Paris is bigger.

1. I'm good at swimming but my sister is
2. Terry is tall but his brother is
3. Tommy is clever but Terry is
4. Sally is pretty but her sister is
5. John is lazy but his brother is
6. Coimbra is far from Lisbon but Faro is
7. Serra da Estrela is high but Mount Everest is
8. Walking is healthy but running is
9. John had bad marks but Peter had
10. I think Geography is interesting but History is

B - Complete according to the example:

Paris is bigger than Lisbon.

1. Portugal is Ireland. (larger)
2. I think football is tennis. (more interesting)
3. Sally is her sister. (prettier)
4. John is student than Peter. (better)
5. My brother is I. (taller)
6. I think that Sintra is Lisbon. (more beautiful)
7. The sea in Ericeira is in the Algarve. (rougher)
8. I believe swimming is playing cards. (cooler)
9. Shark are dolphins. (more dangerous)
10. Unfortunately, air pollution is 10 years ago.