

IF I WERE IN CHARGE

Definitions

Match.

change
fair
allow
charge
cheer
analyze
groan
instead
run
agreement
rule
disagree

to shout with excitement the responsibility for the care of someone or something to manage or have control over something just, right, or proper to give permission
to make or become different in place of
to examine closely something that tells what is or is not allowed a promise between two or more people or groups to have a different opinion from someone else to make a low, wordless sound to show pain, unhappiness, or disapproval