

COMPLETE THE DIALOGUE AND THEN DO THE TRAINER ON THE RIGHT.

To fill in the gaps, choose between yet, still, already, and just.

Two friends are planning a trip to Istanbul.

JESS: I'm so excited, I've never been to Turkey!

CHRIS: I know, it's going to be a great trip.

JESS: Have you been there _____?

CHRIS: To Turkey? Yes, once but to a different area. I _____ haven't visited Istanbul.

JESS: I see. Ok, so things to do...tickets, of course. And we're going to need a travel visa and medical insurance.

CHRIS: Yes, I'll take care of that. I've _____ looked at flights and they are quite cheap.

JESS: Nice. If you take care of those things, then I'll look for a hotel or Airbnb. I haven't done any research _____, but I have time today to do it.

CHRIS: Ok, cool.

JESS: Do you have a preference? (Jess pulls out her phone and opens the Airbnb app.)

CHRIS: Not really. I've never stayed an an Airbnb, but I know they are usually very nice.

JESS: Yes, I've always had pleasant experiences. Oh, look! I've _____ found one!

CHRIS: Let me see...

#1 GRAMMAR

Match each adverb to its definition.

JUST	We use _____ in positive sentences when the action is completed
STILL	We use _____ in both questions and negative sentences
ALREADY	We use _____ when the action happened "a short time before"
YET	We use _____ in negative sentences, especially when we want to emphasize that smth. hasn't been done

#2 VOCABULARY

Match each picture to its definition.

_____ = NICE

TRIP

TRAVEL VISA

MEDICAL INSURANCE

PLEASANT