

THE GREAT KING SIBI

Once there was a great king named Sibi. One day a dove landed his feet and prayed to save life.

An eagle came there and said to Sibi “that bird is my food, please give it”.

Sibi told I didn't give the dove to you, instead of that take equal quality of flesh from my body.

Suddenly the dove and the eagle turned as gods and they blessed him.

ms badi.com