In 2014, Amanda Wilson was working as a florist in Ireland when she decided to change her life. She liked her job, but she also to go abroad and see the world.

Amanda left her job and bought a flight to Australia. Has she seen the world? Well, perhaps not all of it, but she's visited 23 countries. She's explored interesting places and met all kinds of people.

Amanda enjoyed her experiences so much that she wanted to share them with others. She started a blog about adventures. Lots of people have read her blog posts and seen the beautiful photos that she's taken while travelling. The boss of a travel magazine saw Amanda's blog and offered her a job as a photojournalist. Now Amanda's job is taking photos and writing articles, as she travels around the world!

What are the plans?" I'm going to continue travelling ", she says. " There are hundreds of places that I haven't visited!"
