

Instructions: Match the definitions with the elements of plot.

C – It is the stage in which the story begins to draw to a close. Events show the results of the important decision or action that happened at the climax.

F – It is the final outcome of the D – It introduces or develops the conflict. Events occur that make the conflict get more complicated and build toward the climax.

A – It provides background information and introduces the setting, characters, and sometimes the conflict.

B – It is the point of greatest tension in the work. Here, the conflict is resolved, and the outcome becomes clear.