

 Badger Where does a badger live? A. a house C. a den B. a tree D. a hole	 Killer Whale What do killer whales eat? A. People C. fish B. seals and fish D. we don't know
 Great White Shark Are great white sharks the most dangerous type of shark? A. Yes B. No	 Moose Where does a Moose live? A. United States C. Australia B. Prague D. Canada
 Ants Do some ants have venom? A. Yes B. No	 Octopus Is an octopus dangerous to humans? A. Yes, all of them. C. No, none of them. B. Yes, some of them
 Tarantula What does a tarantula look like? A. big and hairy C. small and hairy B. small and fast D. big and fast	 Piranha Where does a piranha live? A. the sea C. The Amazon River B. the desert D. Africa
 Scorpion What does a scorpion use to hurt its food? A. claws C. teeth B. tail D. Stinger	 Hippo What word best describes a Hippo? A. little C. kind B. mean D. sharp teeth

Jellyfish

Why do Jellyfish stings hurt?

- A. They have venom. C. They are sharp.
- B. They don't hurt.

Cobra

Where does a cobra live?

- A. the city C. the sea
- B. the forest D. the desert

Wasp

Will a wasp sting kill a human?

- A. No, it just hurts.
- B. Yes, always. C. Some wasps can kill humans

Wolf

What color are wolves?

- A. Brown
- B. White
- C. Brown in the arctic, white in America
- D. Brown in America, white in the arctic

Leopard

Why does a leopard have spots?

- A. To look pretty
- B. To hide
- C. To scare animals
- D. To show predators they have venom