You can do a few things to make homework less stressful. First, be sure you understand what you have to do in your assignment. Write it down in your notebook if you need to, and don't be afraid to ask questions about what is expected.

Second, use any extra time you have at school to work on your homework. Many schools have libraries that are specifically designed for students to study or to get their homework done.

Third, pace yourself. You need to plan your time. If it is a heavy homework day, you will need to devote more time to your homework.

Whenever you need some help, the first person you should ask for help is your teacher. Sometimes, it is good to have someone explain something that you are not completely sure of. In addition, you might also be able to get some help from another student. If there is a friend who is a good student, think about asking that person to study with you.

31. In order to make homework less stressful, the first thing to do is ____

- A. to remember the deadline
- B. to understand what you have to do in your assignment
- C. to go to the school library as soon as possible
- D. to know who can do it for you

32. If you have any extra time at school, you should

- A. spend time with your friends
- B. use it to make your day planner
- C. use it to understand the assignment
- D. study or get your homework done

33. The word “devote” in the third paragraph can be best replaced by the word “____”.

- A. reduce
- B. spend
- C. develop
