

BATU SENAWAT 2

Esot's father had a pet squirrel, which he gave to his son. But both its back legs were hurt. The villagers laughed as the frog and squirrel had a play fight. Senawat, the village head, heard the loud laughing and came out of the long house. Suddenly, the sky went dark! Thunder and lightning flashed!

Heavy rain pounded down! The longhouse shook and began to rise. The house stood up right. Finally, the storm stopped. Everything was stiff and lifeless. Everything had turned to rocks! People believe that the rocks at Batu Senawat are the village people who were cursed.
