

On both maps an island _____, the first one _____ what the island looked before touristic development, the second one after.

The island, which has palm trees, is _____ 250 metres long. It is _____ a sea and has a beach on _____. Over an undisclosed period, the island was _____ with the _____ a hotel and a pier, however the _____ of the island appears to have been left untouched .

_____ additions are the hotel rooms. 6 buildings, surrounding some trees, have been built _____ the island and 9 buildings have been constructed in the _____ the island. Between both _____, a reception area and a restaurant has been developed.

A pier, which _____ the reception, has also been built on _____ the island, allowing yachts to dock and access the resort. Apart from the trees, the beach remains the only natural feature that has been _____, although it now has a swimming area.

- shows
- is displayed
- completely transformed
- surrounded by
- the west side
- on the west of
- the south coast of
- is connected to
- eastern part
- approximately
- relatively untouched
- addition of
- centre of
- The most noticeable
- accommodation areas