Chapter 2: An Independent Nation

Textbook: Page 16 to 18

The day Brunei achieved independence. Match the pictures with the correct descriptions.

The Royal Family, government officials, international representatives and diplomats were seated before the start of the ceremony.

At exactly 12:01am on 1st January 1984, the 'Proclamation of Independence' was read.

Brunei was beautifully decorated with electric coloured lights.

The 21-gun salute was fired, signalling Brunei as an independent country.

Many Bruneians had to be outdoors in the rain just to hear the declaration of independence.
