

Write a dialogue between you and a police officer.
Use your book p.90, ex. 1 as an example.

You are the victim of a theft:

- Decide what was stolen and where you last had it
- Decide what it looks like and if you need, what was in it.
- Report the crime, answer the police officer's questions

A police officer:

- Ask questions about what has been stolen, where and when
- If necessary give some advice.

Don't forget to use the polite language from ex.4 and ex.6
