One day I was at  grandmother's house. It was my favorite place because I could play with  dog;  name was Max. We used to play so many games, but one of them was  favorite. The game was to throw the ball as hard as possible and he would catch it. After play, it was  relaxing time together. We were best friends. My grandmother was always saying  friendship is unique". I miss those days so much.

2. Write a short sentence using the possessive adjective "your"
