

ECOSYSTEMS

5th GRADE

NAME:

1. Choose the correct answer.

What do you call an ecosystem that has several types of habitat?

- a) biome
- b) biosphere

What is a collection of different populations that live together in one place?

- a) relationship
- b) community

Which two parts is an ecosystem made up of?

- a) population and community
- b) biotope and biocoenosis

2. Listen and complete the sentences.

A population is a _____

A community is a _____

• Choose the correct answers.

- a) A herd of zebras, a herd of elephants and a pack of hyenas which all live in the same area is an example of a population / a community.
- b) A flock of seagulls that are all nesting on the same cliff is an example of a population / a community

3. Match the definitions with the words.

- HABITAT Fires caused by humans that destroy large areas of forest
- OVERFISHING The place where a particular population lives.
- BIOSPHERE The destruction of natural forest ecosystems and its habitats by cutting down the trees.
- POLLUTION Humans take a lot of marine animals from the sea.
- DEFORESTATION Humans often release dangerous substances into the air, water or soil.
- FOREST FIRES All the ecosystems on Earth.

4. Look and label this picture.

producers	tertiary consumer
decomposer	primary consumer
	secondary consumer

