1. Read the description and write the type of the film

1. This type of movie generally involves a lot of action scenes including violence, like fighting or shoot-outs (with weapons), car chases and often lots of explosions.

It is an_____film

2. The main idea of these films is to make the audience laugh. The main characters are often in funny situations. It is a _____

3. The aim of this film is to scare the audience. They often feature a monster, some type of evil entity or a terrible/frightening situation. It is a _____film

4. These films are serious and focus on the emotions of realistic characters and the conflicts they have. It is a _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS