

Celebrating Eid al-Fitr

What Is Eid al-Fitr?

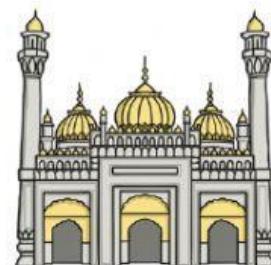

Eid al-Fitr is an important celebration that happens at the end of Ramadan. Eid al-Fitr means 'The Festival of Breaking of the Fast'. Muslim people celebrate the end of fasting and thank Allah for helping them to be strong enough to fast.

What Is Ramadan?

Ramadan is a religious festival celebrated by Muslim people, which lasts for 29 or 30 days. Muslim people believe that Ramadan is a time to remember when the Qur'an was given to Muhammad.

It is a time when Muslim people:

- go to the mosque more often to pray;
- read the Qur'an more regularly;
- do good deeds, such as giving money to charity;
- fast during daylight hours.

During Ramadan, fasting means that Muslim people do not eat between sunrise and sunset. Fasting is difficult: young, old or unwell people do not have to fast.

The Five Pillars of Islam

These are the five things you must remember to be a good Muslim:

1. Shahada: Faith
2. Salat: Prayer, five times a day
3. Zakat: Charity
4. Sawm: Fasting
5. Hajj: Pilgrimage to Mecca

How Do Muslim People Celebrate Eid al-Fitr?

Eid al-Fitr lasts for three days. People celebrate with their families by decorating their homes inside and out, praying, sharing special meals and giving gifts.

Eid Said!
Happy Eid

Eid Mubarak!
Have a blessed eid!
