_____ v. - If you carry out a task, you do it.

_____ n. - determination or enthusiasm to do something _____ n. - the most recent laws _____ v. - to give duties, powers, etc. to another person _____ v. - to settle or decide an argument, question, etc. conclusively _____ v. - to use something such as skills or knowledge _____ v. - to give someone confidence and make them want to do something _____ n. - the achievement of something you have been trying to do _____ adj. - happening or existing one after another without a break _____ v. - to make plans about the future, so that you will be prepared _____ v. - to do well and be successful _____ v. - to make certain or sure; guarantee _____ n. - a person who sets up businesses and business deals _____ n. - a company or business, often a small one _____ n. - the lack of success _____ adj. - attracting a lot of attention or publicity _____ adj. - using or showing new methods, ideas, etc.

_____ v. - to not have any or not have enough of something _____ v. - to stop holding something _____ adj. - slightly worried _____ v. - to try to prove something by giving reasons _____ adj. - able to change easily and adapt to different situations _____ v. - to promote the growth or development of something _____ n. - a situation in which there is something missing from a market, and a new product or service could be sold _____ adj. - lasting, staying or extending over a long time

LIVEWORKSHEETS

_____ v. - to provide what someone needs _____ v. - to stop for a moment in order to consider something or look at something in a different way _____ v. - to believe that someone will do something well and in the way you want _____ v. - to make something less strong or successful _____ v. - to do something _____ adj. - If a plan, suggestion, etc. is viable, it is practical and could be successful.

_____ n. - an experienced person who gives help and advice to someone else over a period of time _____ adv. - in a way that is experienced or felt by both people or groups involved _____ v. - to start to exist _____ n. - the period of time in which something is planned to happen _____ n. - the hours during which business is open _____ n. - work that involves writing reports dealing with letters, filling in forms, etc.

_____ v. - to be in charge of; manage _____ n. - the identity of people interested in buying a product or service, the first stage of a sales process

_____ v. - to start a new business

LIVEWORKSHEETS