_____ n. - an unexpected event in which people are injured or killed _____ n. - an arrangement with a company or Internet provider to use a service they provide _____ n. - something you do for pleasure _____ adj. - If a drug is addictive, the people who take it cannot stop.

_____ n. - An advantage is a way in which one thing is better than another.

_____ v. - If you can afford to do something, you have enough money or time to do it.

_____ adv. - in addition to something that has just been mentioned _____ conj. - in spite of the fact that _____ n. - a point or a set of reasons you use to try to convince people about something _____ n. - practical plans for managing the details of a meeting or event _____ v. - not allowed to do it or use something.

_____ n. - Someone's boss is the person in charge of the place where they work.

_____ v. - If important news breaks, it becomes known to the public.

_____ v. - If you call someone, you telephone them.

_____ n. - a piece of equipment used for taking photographs or for filming _____ n. - the price that you have to pay for something _____ v. - talk to each other in a friendly way.

_____ v. - make a check on something, you make sure that it is satisfactory, safe, or correct.

_____ v. - If you communicate with someone, you keep in touch with them.

_____ n. - Communication is the process by which people or animals exchange information.

_____ n. - a business that sells goods or provides a service

_____ n. - an electronic machine that can quickly make calculations or store and find information

_____ n. - If you are in contact with someone, you regularly talk to them or write to them.

_____ v. - to go to the other side of a road _____ adj. - able to or likely to cause hurt or harm

_____ adj. - late

_____ n. - an unfavourable or harmful circumstance

LIVEWORKSHEETS

_____ v. - If something distracts you, your attention is taken away from what you are doing.

_____ v. - If you download data you transfer it from the memory of one computer to that of another, especially over the Internet.

_____ n. - a direct result of someone or something on another person or thing _____ adj. - Something or someone that is efficient does a job successfully, without wasting time or energy _____ n. - an unexpected and serious event which needs immediate action to deal with it _____ adj. - costing a lot of money

_____ v. - to mend something _____ v. - to concentrate on something _____ adj. - If you are friendly to someone, you behave in a kind and pleasant way to them.

_____ adv. - Furthermore is used to introduce a statement adding to or supporting the previous one.

_____ v. - If a machine or piece of equipment goes wrong, it stops working correctly.

_____ n. - Gossip is informal conversation, often concerning people's private affairs.

_____ n. - a plan, suggestion, or thought that you have after thinking about a problem

n. - an opinion or belief

_____ n. - the characteristics that make you who you are _____ adj. - If something is illegal, the law says that it is not allowed.

_____ n. - Industry is the work and processes involved in manufacturing things in factories.

_____ n. - the work that someone does to earn money

_____ v. - If you lose something, you cannot find it, or you no longer have it because it has been taken away from you.

_____ adj. - most important

_____ n. - a small portable telephone _____ adv. - You use moreover to introduce a piece of information that adds to or supports the previous statement.

_____ n. - Music is a pattern of sounds performed by people singing or playing instruments.

_____ n. - a person who plays a musical instrument as their job or hobby _____ adj. - unpleasant, depressing, or harmful

LIVEWORKSHEETS

_____ n. - information about things that have happened.

_____ adj. - Online means available on or connected to the Internet.

_____ v. - to give money in order to buy something _____ n. - someone who is walking

_____ n. - a quality

_____ n. - Productivity is the rate at which things are produced or dealt with.

_____ n. - a problem that needs to be discussed _____ n. - Your relatives are the members of your family.

_____ v. - When one thing replaces another, the first thing takes the place of the second.

_____ v. - take something without permission and without intending to return it.

_____ n. - someone you have never met before _____ n. - Technology is the application of science and scientific knowledge for practical purposes in industry, farming, medicine, or business.

_____ v. - If you text someone, you send them a text message.

_____ adj. – being based on facts and is not made up.

_____ adj. - being the newest thing of its kind

adj. - having the latest information

_____ n. - something you spend time doing which does not have a useful result _____ n. - a set of information which is available on the Internet _____ n. - Your workplace is the building or company where you work.

_____ conj. - You can use 'yet' to introduce a fact which is rather surprising.

LIVEWORKSHEETS