ANN'S JOURNEY TO MANCHESTER

In May, I go to Manchester because my friend has a wedding party. I speak to my friend about the journey and she gives me the directions. She says that I can travel either by train or by bus. I choose to go by train because I know that it is quicker and more comfortable, even though I pay more money. I buy a return ticket and I take a train from Stoke station. I spend an hour on the train. I sit by the window and read an interesting book. The conductor is very kind and tells me when it is time to get off. The train comes on time and I get to Manchester four hours before the wedding. I go shopping and find a lovely present for my friend. I think it is a very nice day.
