

PRESENT PERFECT TENSE

- I _____ (not see) the film "Titanic" yet.
- My grandmother _____ (buy) some new furniture for her house in Newcastle.
- Who _____ (break) the vase on the big table in the kitchen? My mum will get furious.
- The Jacksons _____ (paint) their fence recently. Their garden looks amazing.
- Mrs. Torres _____ (not hear) the alarm clock. She is two hours late for work.
- Now that I _____ (finish) my homework, my friend and I can play on the playground.
- Where _____ Charles and Betty _____ (go)? I knocked their door, nobody opened it.
- _____ you ever _____ (meet) a famous person in your life? It must be exciting!
- Brenda _____ (read) this novel four times before. She must have liked it so much.
- Alan and Beverly _____ (live) in this old house for more than twenty-five years.
- Benjamin _____ already _____ (eat) dinner. I don't think he is hungry now.
- I _____ (not do) the laundry yet. I don't have any clean t-shirts in my wardrobe now.
- Oh, Helen! Your mother is so worried about you. Where _____ you _____ (be)?
- The chief police officer _____ (question) all the bank staff about the robbery.
- Mr. and Mrs. Hill _____ (watch) all the one hundred episodes of this series since June.
- My mum _____ (not phone) me since last Saturday. I need to talk to her immediately.
- Our cat, Bella _____ (not drink) anything for hours. You had better give her some water.
- Frank's sisters _____ just _____ (go) out. They will visit the city museum.
- The children _____ (finish) painting their pictures. They are having a rest now.
- My father _____ (not arrive) home yet. We are waiting for him patiently for dinner.
- _____ your grandma _____ (bake) the cake yet? I can't wait to taste it.
- Judy and Max _____ (water) the flowers, but they _____ (not feed) the sheep yet.
- I _____ (brush) my teeth and _____ (wear) my pyjamas. I can go to bed now.

Fill in the blanks with the correct forms of the verbs in brackets to complete the sentences

- Peter and I _____ (not see) each other for about two weeks. I will visit him soon.
- Lawrence _____ (won) one hundred thousand dollars from the lottery recently.
- We _____ (receive) a strange letter from Egypt. It's written in Arabic language.
- The footballers _____ (not play) well enough. We may lose this match in the end.
- My cousin, Virginia _____ (plant) twelve pine trees in the forest so far today.
- This old building _____ (stand) here for about two hundred fifty years. It's so old.
- My parents _____ (stay) at a luxurious hotel in Madrid since last weekend.
- Mr. Perez _____ (vacuum) the floor, but he _____ (not dust) the furniture yet.
- There is a car accident on the street in front of the bookshop. Carl and Terry _____ (call) the police, but the officers _____ (not arrive) yet.
- You can bring the food. I _____ (set) the table and I am starving at the moment.
- Gloria, _____ you _____ (wash) your hands yet? The breakfast is ready.
- The secretary _____ (write) the emails but she _____ (not send) them yet. She needs to make a few changes.
- Willie's brother, Roy _____ (read) quite a lot of story books since the beginning of the summer holiday. He is such a bookworm.
- _____ you ever _____ (drive) a Ferrari in your life? It must be a nice experience.
- Rose _____ (wear) her raincoat, but she _____ (forget) to take her umbrella with her. She will get back home quickly to get it.