You will hear Maggie talking to Bill about a Show and Tell class. What things will each student bring to the class?

Maggie: Hi Bill! What are you bringing to the Show and Tell class?

Bill: We have to show and talk about something from the past, don't we?

Maggie: That's right. You could bring that interesting camera that your dad has. It has a printer with it, doesn't it?

Bill: No, the camera itself prints the photos.

Maggie: Wow!

Bill: OK. I'll bring it.

Maggie: (21) My dad collects things, too. He's got part of a dinosaur egg.

Bill: (21) Can you bring it, Maggie?

Maggie: (21) Yes. If I wear gloves when I show it.

Bill: Great! (22) What's Ann bringing then?

Maggie: (22) A newspaper printed the year she was born.

Bill: That's nice but (23) I prefer Jane's idea.

Maggie: (23) Everyone writes a diary!

Bill: (23) It's more interesting, as her mum wrote it at school.

Maggie: OK then. (24) What about Tania?

Bill: (24) She'll bring an old comic book. Jane's mum has seen it and she liked it a lot.

Maggie: Nice! (25) Did you see the funny cartoon on the cover of Ian's record album?

Bill: No. (25) I'll just have to wait and see it in class.

1 Where will David put his sister's mobile phone?

David: What's wrong, Angela?

Angela: I've lost my phone, David. I think I left it on my bookshelf this morning.

David: Look! Here it is. It's on the sofa. Shall I leave it there or put it back on your bookshelf?

Angela: (1) Please leave it on that little table in my bedroom and I'll take it with me when I leave home.

David: OK, fine.

2 What will the girl buy?

Man: Hello, can I help you?

Girl: I'm not sure what to buy for my brother. He wants to use the internet but he's interested in photography, too. So, I thought I might buy him a camera or a computer.

Man: Computers are a bit expensive. (2) What about a mobile phone? Then he can use the internet and take photos.

Girl: (2) That sounds like a good idea to me.

3 How much did the boy's father pay for the TV?

Alicia: Wow! That's a big TV, Tom!

Tom: Isn't it great? My dad got it for a really good price.

Alicia: My parents bought one last month for £350, but it's not as big as yours.

Tom: (3) We bought it for an amazing price. It was £375 before, but it was on sale, so it only cost £250.

Alicia: You were lucky! Shall we watch a film?

Tom: Good idea.

4 What did the cat break?

Girl: Who broke that?

Boy: I was making a cup of tea to have with my sandwich when I saw that the cat was on the kitchen table.

Girl: And what happened?

Boy: (4) I shouted at the cat because it was going to eat the sandwich from my plate. Then, it jumped off the table and knocked the lamp on to the floor. I was sad to see my nice lamp was broken.

5 Which man is the girl's father?

Dad: (5) In my opinion, this is the best digital camera that is available in our shop now, Debbie.

Girl: Why do you think it's worth buying it, Dad?

Dad: Well, many top photographers and journalists use it. It's got a big memory and the battery lasts longer than most cameras.

Girl: But it is very expensive, isn't it?

Dad: Yes. (5) We also have cheaper cameras at the shop, but this one really is the best.

You will hear a teacher talking to a group of students about a careers event.

Woman: I know you are preparing for the test on Monday, June 9th. However, because you are final-year students, you need to think about a career, too. So, before term ends, on June 20th, (6) someone will visit the school, on June 17th to give careers advice. (7) On this day, you will be able to find out about many different occupations. We hope that this will help you choose an interesting career. It is never too early to start thinking about the future!

(8) The event will be from 9am to 4pm. From 11am until midday, (9) the first talk will be for anyone interested in science and technology and from 2pm until 3pm, the second talk will be about languages.

(10) If you would like more details, please speak to Mr. Rogers, that's R-O-G-E-R-S. He will add your name to a list of those interested in the event. There is also an information sheet at the back of the hall that you can take home with you to read.

You will hear a sports teacher talking to a student, Tom, about an after-school swimming club.

Teacher: (11) Hello Tom. I see your name isn't on the list for the after-school swimming club.

Tom: (11) Yes, I know that, Miss Helen.

Teacher: I thought you wanted to be in the school swimming team.

Tom: I do. But (12) do you think I'm good enough?

Teacher: (12) If you practise, yes.
