Read the information. Write and answer questions about them. Use how many / there are / there were / why / because.

Name: Tiger
100 years ago: 100,000
Now: 3,200
Why endangered: People are killing them.

- How many tigers were there 100 years ago?

  There were 100.000 tigers.

- How many tigers are there now?

  There are 3.200 tigers.

- Why are tigers endangered?

  Because people are killing them.

Name: Black rhinoceros
100 years ago: 300,000
Now: 2,000
Why endangered: People are killing them.

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Name: Cheetah
100 years ago: more than 100,000
Now: 12,000
Why endangered: Their habitat is disappearing.

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Name: Polar bear

100 years ago: No one knows

Now: 20,000

Why endangered: The climate is changing.

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Name: Andean flamingo

100 years ago: No one knows

Now: 34,000

Why endangered: Their habitat's polluted.

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Name: Asian elephant

100 years ago: 90,000

Now: 45,000

Why endangered: People are killing them.

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____