

Present continuous

Use

We use the present continuous to talk about:

- an action you can see.
In the photo, Rado Laurel is talking to a group of designers.
- an action happening now.
A: What are you doing?
B: I'm getting ready for the party.
- an action happening around the time of speaking.
Sara's looking for a new job.
- a changing situation.
Environmentally friendly clothes are becoming more popular.

Form

We form the present continuous with a form of the auxiliary verb be + the -ing form of the main verb.

Form

We form the present continuous with a form of the auxiliary verb be + the -ing form of the main verb.

Remember the spelling rules for -ing verbs. See page 164.
