

Dialogue 1

- Hello! What's ?

- My son has a fever, .

- Let's check your first. It looks a little .

Let me listen to your and breathing with the stethoscope.

and deeply.

- Now I'll check your .

-Let's see your .

-Aahhhh.

- Now I'll check your knee reflex.

- I'll give you some that will lower your son's . He is going to soon. Here you are.

- very much, doctor!

Dialogue 2

-Hi! ?

- I great, thank you. It's such a lovely day! What about you?

- Well, I am not so good.

- But what's the ?

- I have a terrible - 17-.

- I am sorry to hear that. I hope a walk in the fresh air will make you feel better.

-I hope so, too.

Dialogue 3

- Let's have dinner. The soup is so delicious.

-I'm I can't eat anything. I have a .

- Oh, that's too bad. I think you should see a as soon as possible.

Dialogue 4.

-Oh!

- What's wrong? What ?

-I have a .

- I think you should get some rest. Let's sit down for a while.

Dialogue 5.

- You should hurry up! You'll for school.

- I'm afraid I can't go to school today. I don't feel .

- But what's the matter.

- I have a .

- Okay, then you should in bed. I'll bring you some tea.

Dialogue 6.

- What to you?

- Unfortunately, I had an accident and I .

- Oh, that's . I am sorry to hear that. You should be more careful next time.

- Yes, I'll certainly be.

Dialogue 7.

- Are you ok?

- I'm afraid I'm not so good. I have a and a .

- Let's go inside and have a cup of hot tea. It will help you feel better. It's too cold outside.

- Ok. Let's go.