

Read the poem and answer the questions.

I had to move to a new house, it was a horrible thing.
Everything was changing because of my dad's new job.
I am going to miss so many things.

I had to leave my bedroom behind.
I had to leave my swing set in the backyard.
I had to change schools, which was hard.
I had to go to a different park to play.
I would miss my best friend.

The new house seemed scary when I had first arrived.
It was big and dark, at least until the lights were switched on.
It was going to be hard, getting used to it.
Hope everything would be smooth and pleasant.
