Amazing sculptures

"You can make anything out of ice," says Ian Foster. Ian is an ice sculptor. He carves animals, buildings and trees — all out of ice. The biggest ice sculpture he ever made was an entire castle.

Each sculpture begins with a piece of paper, a pencil and Ian's imagination. He makes drawings of the sculpture and imagines it from the front and back and from every side. Once he is happy with his idea, he starts to work with his tools on a big block of ice.

"I have to wear a thick coat and a fur hat to work, even when it's hot outside. The temperature in the studio is always close to freezing. Otherwise the sculpture would melt. It's like working in a big fridge."

Most of the sculptures are made for special occasions: weddings, town festivals or parties in big companies. The sculptures are taken to the party in refrigerated vans. Once they are taken out of the van and put on show, they begin to melt. However, the biggest sculptures will last for many hours before they turn into water.

Does Ian feel sad when his sculptures melt? "Not really," he says, "because I am already thinking about the next sculpture."

A large sandcastle on a beach, shaped like a dinosaur. A person is standing on its back, providing a sense of scale. The sandcastle is intricately detailed with scales and a long tail. The background shows a sandy beach and the ocean under a clear sky.
