UDLA
UNIVERSIDAD DE LAS AMÉRICAS

Unit 2. Against the law: How to make questions

I. Yes/no questions (close-ended)

A. Answer the questions appropriately. If you see a (+) sign, write an affirmative answer. If it is a (-) sign, write a negative answer.

1) Do Tom and Martha have to go to court for that parking ticket? (-)

_____.

2) Does the judge have to read the criminal code? (+)

_____.

3) Does Chloe work in a law firm? (+)

_____.

4) Is your brother a lawyer? (-)

_____.

5) Do you get a fine for walking on the street? (-)

_____.

6) Are your classmates interested in crime books? (+)

_____

II. -WH questions (open-ended)

Exercises

A. Match the question from column A with the answer in column B.

Questions	Answers
1. What is the color of his hair? _____	A. When they are 13 years old.
2. Where does the woman eat? _____	B. She eats in the dining room.
3. Why did you get a fine? _____	C. It is 36,600 dollars.
4. When do dogs usually die? _____	D. It is black.
5. How much is this property? _____	E. Because I committed a minor crime.

LIVEWORKSHEETS