Int: So, I guess you go to the gym every day, don't you? And fast food must be completely off the menu.

M: Actually, I never train at all on Sundays. Sunday is my day for relaxing, so I spend time with my family and friends. I do have a burger or a pizza sometimes. (23) You can't eat healthy food every day of your life, but yes, you're right; I do have to eat well, generally, in order to be fit enough to win races. You can't expect to be a professional athlete and eat whatever you want.

Int: (24) You said you relax on Sundays. What do you like to do?

M: (24) I'm not much of a reader but I love to watch TV or a movie on Netflix. Most of my friends play basketball or football on a Sunday but doing more exercise is the last thing I want to do.

Int: (25) Finally, Michael, what do you think you will be doing in ten years' time?

M: I probably won't be competing in international competitions but (25) I am very interested in being a coach for young cyclists and sharing all my experiences with them.

That is the end of part 4. [Pause 10 seconds.]

THAT IS THE END OF THE TEST.

TEST 3

[Pause 5 seconds.]

Part 1 [Track 09]

Look at Part 1. [Pause 5 seconds.]

Now we are ready to start. For each question, choose the correct answer.

1. What is the weather like in Sydney?

F: As we move across the map of the world, we can see that in most of Australia the sun hasn't come out yet, as cloudy weather covers most of the area. (1) There is a very strong possibility of heavy rain in Melbourne and Sydney, or even snow storms in Canberra. Central Australia will remain warm with clear skies and no sign of rain for at least a week. That's it for now but join us after the lunchtime news for a national update.

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

2. How did the woman learn about the accident?

M: Mum, do you mind if I turn on the TV? I would like to watch the afternoon film which is about to start in five minutes.

F: (2) Actually, Greg, I was just listening to a radio report about the accident on the bridge yesterday. As soon as the news finishes, I will turn it off so you can watch TV. Did you hear about it?

M: Yes, I did. Our teacher told us it was front-page news in all the newspapers today and I was late to school because of it. I think three people were taken to hospital.

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

3. What will they eat at the restaurant?

F: This menu is very big; there's so much to choose from. They have three pages of just pizzas.

M: Why don't we start with some fresh tomato soup with fresh bread and butter?

F: Dad, I think we don't need to have a first course. How about we go straight to the main course? We can have either chicken or a meat pie.

M: (3) I don't mind, I'll have whatever you're having but I would also like to have some chips and vegetables.

F: (3) Okay, the chicken it is then. Can you call the waiter over now?

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

4. What did the man buy from the supermarket?

M: Jane? I'm back! Where are you?

F: I'm in the kitchen making a cup of tea. You took your time, right? You met a friend on the way back, I suppose?

M: Not at all. The supermarket was full of people doing their weekly shopping. It was crazy!

F: (4) Well, you got the bread, the cheese, the fruit... Where's the milk? I need some milk for the kids!

M: Oh dear, I forgot! I knew I had forgotten something. I'll go quickly to the local shop and get a bottle.

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

5. How are tourists advised to travel?

F: We now have the latest news for everyone planning to travel from the start of the summer holiday. The latest weather report has warned that storms will continue to cause problems along the coastal areas, as they are in danger of flooding. These floods are likely to block many roads including some motorways. (5) All holidaymakers are advised to use the express train, and avoid ferries and roads for the next few days. Some airports have also closed due to high winds. Airlines are advising customers to call before going to the airport. We'll be back with more updates.

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

6. On what date is the birthday party?

F: Don't forget it's Jane's birthday next week. I think she is going to be sixteen years old.

M: (6) Yes, it's on the 15th of March. I thought she was going to be seventeen but I might be wrong.

F: Dad, we are the same age, how could she? (6) Anyway, I think the invitation I received is for the following day.

M: (6) Really? Well that's good. I'm glad the party's at the weekend. I hate it when your friends throw parties on a school night. You always go to bed late and you can never get up on time the next day.

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

7. Which instrument can Ben play?

Ben: Hi, Adam. How are you getting on with the new drum-kit your parents got you for your birthday?

Adam: It's great Ben, I have set it up in the garage and I'm making a lot of noise. Our neighbours aren't complaining yet. Are you still practising with your guitar?

Ben: Yes, I am, but my sister complains. (7) She can't practise on her saxophone while I'm playing the guitar. She says she can't concentrate when I'm playing different music.

Adam: With all of us playing a musical instrument, maybe we should form a band!

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

That is the end of part 1. [Pause 10 seconds.]

Part 2 [Track 10]

Now turn to part 2, questions 8-13.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

8. You will hear two friends talking about a new sports centre. [Pause 8 seconds.]

M: So, how's that new sports centre? Did you go yesterday morning?

F: Yeah, I did. It was pretty good. It has loads of great equipment and lots of facilities. It also has an incredible pool; (8) it's really big and it's so cheap! I think that's what surprised me most! It all looks so expensive!

M: Really? That's great. We need something we can afford. Not like the other place in town which costs a fortune and doesn't even have great facilities!

F: Yeah, you're right there!

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

9. You will hear two friends talking about a test.

[Pause 8 seconds.]

M: How about studying for the test next week together? Maybe at the weekend?

F: I guess we could. But don't you think it will stop us from concentrating? I know it's less boring but I'm not sure we wouldn't just end up telling jokes and having fun.

M: (9) Actually I think it would help me pay more attention because when I'm alone I just play on my phone or keep going to the fridge. I think I feel hungry all the time, even though I'm not!

F: (laughs) Well, I guess we could try!

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

10. You hear two friends talking about a school theatre group.

[Pause 8 seconds.]

M: Did you enjoy the school theatre group yesterday?

F: It was harder than I had expected. It's one thing watching actors performing, but quite another doing it yourself! Once you are out on the stage during the performance you feel like everybody is watching only you. I don't think I'm born to be an actress and the teacher was too busy to give me more support.

M: I felt the same really.

F: (10) But this doesn't mean that I'll give up. I'm looking forward to getting better with time. But next time I want more direction.

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

11. You hear two friends talking about rubbish at school.

[Pause 8 seconds.]

F: Do you know how many people I saw drop their rubbish at school today? I ended up picking it up!

M: I know. I see it the whole time. They wouldn't do it in their homes, would they? We should start a movement for a clean school. We could put up notices about throwing rubbish into bins.

F: That wouldn't work. Unfortunately, we need more bins. There aren't nearly enough. (11) But I think you should talk it over with your teacher first. He might have some ideas and maybe then we could set up a recycling bin centre too.

M: Yeah. Good idea!

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

12. You hear two friends talking about an article they read.

[Pause 8 seconds.]

M: I've just finished that article that you sent me, about social media. It's worrying.

F: Yes, I think so too. Just think how much time we all spend messaging and posting pictures of ourselves on the Internet. We waste so much time just chatting and liking posts.

M: It really depends how long you spend on it. I think what made me think seriously was what it said about all the people we talk to that we have never even met. (12) It's actually not that safe to give details and post pictures to strangers.

F: (12) Yes, that's something most of us don't realise.

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

13. You hear two friends talking about the weekend.

[Pause 8 seconds.]

M: I'm so glad it's Friday! How about going to see that new movie tomorrow?

F: I'd prefer to go to see a concert. My favourite group is playing and I don't want to miss the chance to see them. They're playing in the outdoor stadium on Saturday!

M: The forecast is rain for tomorrow so I don't think it's going to happen. (13) You'll be so disappointed if you buy tickets and then it's cancelled. I think you should postpone seeing them until the next time they come here.

F: I'll risk it! They may be wrong!

[Pause 5 seconds.] Now listen again. [Repeat the recording.]

[Pause 5 seconds.]

That is the end of part 2. [Pause 10 seconds.]

Part 3 [Track 11]

Now turn to part 3, questions 14-19.

For each question, write the correct answer in the gap.

Write one or two words or a number or a date or a time.

You have 20 seconds to look at part 3. [Pause 20 seconds.]

You will hear someone talking on the radio about taxis and private hire vehicles in London.

F: Travelling by taxi or private hire is one of the most flexible ways to travel around London. Services operate across the capital, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year subject to local availability.

(14) All taxis and private hire operators take cash, and some accept credit and debit cards.

Historically, taxis have been referred to as 'black cabs' even though many are not black. (15) These are the only vehicles that should be stopped on the street or picked up at cab ranks, although taxis can also be booked in advance through a telephone service.

Taxi fares have been simplified. Fares depend on three things: the time of day, the distance travelled and time taken. There are three different tariffs for the time of day. One mile would cost you about 4 pounds on tariff 1, 4 pounds sixty pence on tariff 2, and about 5 pounds twenty pence on tariff 3. The first applies from Monday to Friday, from 6am to 8pm. (16) The second tariff is from Monday to Friday between 8pm and 10pm, as well as Saturday and Sunday 6am to 10pm. (17) The third comes into effect every night between 10pm and 6am, and on public holidays. In London there are over 24,000 licensed taxi drivers, all of whom have to pass certain tests. (18) Complete background criminal record checks are carried out, as well as a full medical examination, and an exam-style test of their knowledge of London's streets.

They must know all of London's major roads, and the quickest ways to certain destinations. (19) Private hire vehicles include both limousines and chauffeur services, or minicabs, as they are often called, and have to be booked in advance, either by visiting a licensed operator's office, or by telephone.
