THE MOUSEDEER AND THE CROCODILE

Another day Mouse Deer saw fruits and he wanted to eat them. He wanted to trick crocodile to help him. Mouse Deer shouted "Crocodile! I have instructions from the King," said Mouse Deer "The King!"
said Crocodile. "What does he want me to do?"
"The King wants me to count all the crocodiles," Mousedeer said. "Line up please."

Crocodile and his family lined up. Then Mouse Deer jumped from one crocodile to the next counting,
"One...two...three..." Crocodile said, "How many crocodiles are there?" "Just enough to get me across the river!
Ha ha ha Crocodile! I tricked you! Now I can eat the tasty fruits," said Mouse Deer. Crocodile was very angry. Mouse Deer ran along singing, "I'm quick and clever as can be. Try and try but you can't catch me!

Click on the correct answer.

1. What did Mousedeer saw another day?

a. fruits   b. toys   c. vegetables   d. fish

2. Where did Mousedeer saw those fruits? The fruits were across the _____.

a. road   b. village   c. river   d. bridge

3. Who did Mousedeer tricked to get those fruits?

a. Crocodile   b. Bull   c. Turtle   d. Squirrel

4. How did Mousedeer called up Crocodile? Mousedeer _____.

a. whispered   b. cried   c. shouted   d. waved

5. What did Mousedeer told Crocodile? He said he had _____from the king.

a. gifts   b. instructions   c. rules   d. food

Write down the correct answer. Type them in the space below.

6. What did Mousedeer said to Crocodile?

Mousedeer said _____ to Crocodile.

7. How did Mousedeer counting the crocodiles?

Mousedeer counted the crocodiles by _____.

8. Why Mousedeer tricked Crocodile?

Mousedeer tricked Crocodile because he wanted to eat _____.

9. How does Crocodile feel when he found out that was tricked by Mousedeer?

Crocodile was very _____.

10. Do you think tricked others is a good think? Why?

_____.