

Causatives

A. Put "have" or "has".

- 1) I _____ my teeth cleaned once in six months.
- 2) Mary _____ her nails done once a month.
- 3) Did you _____ the TV repaired?
- 4) We need to _____ the roof repaired.
- 5) She will _____ her car fixed.

B. Put "have"/"has" or "had"

- 1) My father _____ his shoes cleaned every week.
- 2) My mother _____ her dress made last week.
- 3) We _____ the class dismissed yesterday.
- 4) I am going to _____ my car washed tomorrow.
- 5) I haven't _____ my watch fixed yet.

C. Choose if they are ACTIVE / PASSIVE or CAUSATIVE

- | | | | |
|----------------------------------|--------|---------|-----------|
| 1) The vase is broken. | ACTIVE | PASSIVE | CAUSATIVE |
| 2) I had the vase fixed. | ACTIVE | PASSIVE | CAUSATIVE |
| 3) Mary broke the vase. | ACTIVE | PASSIVE | CAUSATIVE |
| 4) We'll have the house painted. | ACTIVE | PASSIVE | CAUSATIVE |
| 5) She had her homework done. | ACTIVE | PASSIVE | CAUSATIVE |

D. USE VERB 3

0) I have my nails done (do) once in two weeks.

1) Mary had her cat _____ (fix).

2) My sister had her hair _____ (cut) today.

3) Madonna had her biography _____ (write)

4) My knee hurts. I will have it _____ (examine)

5) Are you having your room _____ (clean)?

E. Make CAUSATIVE sentences

0) I had my car repaired (repair) last month.

1) Mary _____ her house _____ (paint) last year.

2) I always _____ my clothes _____ (iron).

3) My parents _____ their finances _____ (check) every year.

4) I have _____ my teeth _____ (clean). It feels great.

5) We are going to _____ our plants _____ (water).

6) You need to _____ your finger _____ (examine) It doesn't look good.

F. Don't forget! You can use → get someone to do something, too

0) The teacher gets the students to write a letter.

0) I finally got my kids to go to bed at 11.

Use get or got

1) I can never _____ my husband to wash the dishes.

2) I _____ my brother to do my homework for me.

3) Can you _____ your sisters to stop fighting?

4) I _____ my assistant to fix the details.

