Test One

Use of English

- 1 Fill each of the numbered blanks in the following passage. Use only one word in each space.

One Saturday, Henry Dombey was in his jewellery shop, waiting for customers. At 10 a.m., (1) first customer, a smartly-dressed, middle-aged man arrived and, after looking around, (2) a £400 watch, which he paid for (3) cheque.

Half an hour later, the same customer returned to the shop with (4) waiter from a (5) cafe. He was trying to sell the watch to the waiter for £200 cash (6) wanted Mr Dombey to confirm that the watch was worth at (7) that much. Mr Dombey became very suspicious and called the police. He assumed that the cheque was (8), since otherwise the customer would have lost £200. When the police arrived, the customer explained that, after (9) the shop, he had (10) remembered an important business meeting in Manchester (11) afternoon. He realised that he didn't have enough cash to cover his expenses, so he had (12) to sell the watch because the meeting was more important (13) losing £200. Mr Dombey didn't believe this and neither (14) the police, and the customer (15) arrested.

Mr Dombey was very surprised when, on Monday, the bank paid the cheque without question. He was (16) more surprised when, on Tuesday, he received a letter from the customer's lawyers telling (17) he was (18) to be taken to court (19) making false accusations. Eventually, Mr Dombey had to pay £5,000 in compensation to the customer.

It was, of course, an elaborate trick (20) the customer had planned very carefully.
