TIP

Read the whole text first, before you read the questions. You do not have to understand every word in the text to answer the questions.

Read the text about the TV newsreader, Sean Murphy. This article is about the things Sean Murphy usually does in a working day. Some important words to know are the ones that tell us about time and what Sean Murphy does first and what he does next.

Look at the article again and underline all the words and phrases that tell you when and how often things happen in Sean's day.

Now look at questions 21–27.

Which questions ask about the different things that happen at different times in Sean's day?

Underline the words and phrases in those questions that ask you about when and how often things happen in Sean's day.

Now answer questions 21–27.

Remember, if you cannot find the information in the text, the answer is probably 'Doesn't say'.

PART 4

QUESTIONS 21–27

Read the article about Sean Murphy.
Are sentences 21–27 'Right' (A) or 'Wrong' (B)?
If there is not enough information to answer 'Right' (A) or 'Wrong' (B), choose 'Doesn't say' (C).
For questions 21–27, mark A, B or C on your answer sheet.

Sean Murphy

Sean Murphy reads the late news on British television at 11 o'clock each evening.

'This is a good time for a news programme because we can report the early news from America and the late news from Europe. I still arrive home before midnight because the journey from the Television Centre to my home in north London only takes six minutes. My family are all asleep when I get in, but I usually make a drink of hot milk and read a book for about an hour.

'I always get up to have breakfast with my three children before they catch the school bus. Then I take the newspapers and go back to bed for a short time. Later on, I go for a swim – newsreaders spend too much time sitting down! I sometimes go running. I've done the London Marathon twice. That's a race of over 40 kilometres. I finished each time, but I wasn't among the first!

'I start work after lunch at two o'clock, when I go to my office. The rest of the day is spent planning the programme, but I always try to go home for an hour to see my children before they go to bed.'

TIP

Read the instructions and the notes before you listen, so that you know what kind of words you have to write.

In this part of the test you have to write down information on a form or in some notes.

Look at the instructions and notes and decide what kind of information you will need to listen for. Match the questions with the kind of information you will need to write. There are two kinds of information that you do not need. The first one has been done for you.

	a day of the week
Question 16	time
Question 17	something you wear
Question 18	price or amount of money
Question 19	a spelling of a name
Question 20	a word
	a number

When you hear the recording, you will not always hear the prompt words that are already on the notes.

For example, for question 16 the woman has written 'to sell' on the notes but you may not hear 'the job is to sell …' in the recording. The man will say it in a different way.

For example: The job is selling …
You will be selling …
The job is in the … department
You will work in the … department, selling …

Can you think of different ways of saying these sentences?

1 You begin work at … a.m.
2 You will work on these days: Tuesday to …
3 Your pay will be £ … per hour.
4 You write to Mrs …

Now listen to the recording and answer questions 16–20.

PART 4

QUESTIONS 16–20

You will hear a woman asking for some information about a job.
Listen and complete questions 16–20.
You will hear the conversation twice.
