- Complete with the correct form of used to, (not) be used to or get used to.

Reporter: In the studio today. we have JayBee, the famous rap singer. just arrived from Los Angeles. How's it going, JayBee?

JayBee: Good thanks. but I to the time difference yet.

Reporter: Is it your first visit to the UK?

JayBee: No, it isn't. I come here a lot when I first started singing. That was years ago.

Reporter: Where perform?

JayBee: I sing in a club on the Kings Road, but it's closed down now.

Reporter: Has London changed a lot?

JayBee: Yes, it's much busier. When I was here before, there be so many cars on the road. I just can't the traffic now!

Reporter: You're giving a concert tomorrow, right?

JayBee: Yes, that's right. It's at Wembley Stadium. I performing in such a big place!

LIVEWORKSHEETS