

What has just happened ? Kids during lockdown...

Utilisation 2 du PRESENT PERFECT :

Dire ce qu'il vient de
se passer...

The baby has just broken eggs on the floor.
(Le bébé vient juste de casser des œufs sur le sol.)

Your turn ! Write the verb in the correct form, don't forget « JUST »

REGULAR VERBS : -ED
IRREGULAR VERBS : 3rd column/ past participle

The children _____ (ruin)
the sofa.

The little girl _____ (spill)
orange juice on the table.

NB : SPILL
can be regular
or irregular,
use the regular form here.

The little baby _____ (vomit)
on his mother.

The little boy _____ (drink)
the water from the fishtank.

The little girl _____ (fall)
into the toilet.

The kids _____ (paint)
the whole living room.

The little girl _____ (draw)
on her little brother's face.

The little baby _____ (put)
a nappy on his head.

The little girl _____ (annoy)
a peacock.

The little boy _____ (break)
the laptop.

The little girl _____ (write)
a sweet message on her dad and mum's car.