AUXILIARY VERBS

We use auxiliary verbs...

- 1 to form some tenses:

be: They're talking about profile photos.

have: (1) _____

- 2 to form the negative:

I don't remember him.

- 3 in Yes/No questions and short answers. The auxiliary verb always comes before the subject in questions:

(2) _____

In short answers, use the pronoun + auxiliary:

Yes, I have. No, he didn't.

- 4 in object questions:

What did you do? (What is the object of the question, you is the subject.)

(3) _____

NOTE: in subject questions, we do not use a pronoun or do, does, did:

Who took the photo? NOT Who did they take the photo?

Sometimes we use an auxiliary in short answers to wh-questions too:

Who took the photo? My sister did.

- 5 in question tags. We form question tags with an auxiliary verb and a pronoun. They usually follow this rule:

+ statement, - tag You sold tickets, didn't you?

- statement, + tag (4) _____

- 6 to add emphasis to the main verb:

(5) _____

NOTE: do/does/did are always followed by the infinitive:

Everyone does look like they're having fun!

NOT Everyone does looks...
