A: What problems need attention in your community?

B: Every year the river in my community floods our lands and kills animals. The climate crisis affects the world, the country and my community.

Conversation 2

A: What problems need attention in your community?

B: Every day my brother and I walk 4 kilometres to bring water from the water well. I want to have running water in my house.

Conversation 3

A: What problems need attention in your community?

B: There are many problems in my community, but my dad says I cannot help because I am a teenager. My ideas are important. Teenagers can help change the world.
